

SHARON SNOW

SOCIAL MEDIA MANAGER

Sharon Snow is an experienced social media manager who helps businesses build and maintain their online presence. With a focus on engaging content and strategic planning, Sharon has helped many businesses increase their social media following and reach new customers. She is skilled in creating content that is relevant and interesting to your target audience and has a deep understanding of the latest trends and best practices in social media marketing.

Sharon is an experienced entrepreneur with a wealth of knowledge gained over two decades of running her own businesses. She is currently co-owner of Redbeard's Pawn, which she runs with her husband.

In addition to her successful pawn shop, Sharon has also pursued her passion for travel by becoming a travel consultant. In this role, she helps clients plan their dream vacations, sharing her extensive knowledge of the industry and her personal experiences traveling the world. Her dedication to providing exceptional service and her commitment to her clients has earned her a reputation as a trusted and reliable adviser in the travel industry.

Sharon's experience in homeschooling her two boys has given her a unique perspective on remote work. She has developed strong organizational skills and an ability to manage multiple tasks at once. This has allowed her to excel in her remote work experience. In addition, she has gained an understanding of the importance of clear communication and collaboration in remote work environments. Overall, her experience has given her a well-rounded skill set that she can bring to any remote work opportunity.